The railroads of this country on June 30th of this year had a mileage of 193,345 miles. There are, including tracks of all kinds, single, double, triple, sidings, &c., 259,785 miles.

The Chinese population of this country has decreased from 107,475 in 1890, to 89,800, not including our recent acquisitions. If the obstructions were removed there would be more of them here than we could shake a stick at.

Georgia has a new Major-General and she is pround of her. She is Major-General Sarah M. Bowles, of Washington, in that State, whose elegant courtesies to Governor Candler, while on a visit to her town, he reciprocated by making her a Major-General.

On her last trip from New York to Plymouth, England, the German steamer Deutschland broke the record in 5 days, 11 hours and 5 minuter, making an average speed of 23.51 knots, or 29 geographical miles an hour, which is pretty spry moving for a 3,082 knot run.

The Appalacian Reserve which it is proposed to establish will contain 3,000,000 acres, embracing strips taken from North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Georgia and Alabama. Secretary Wilson favors it, and Congress will be asked to appropriate $6,000,000 to buy the land.

The effects of the Boer war are far reaching. The people of New Orleans have been suffering during the hot spell from a shortage of ice, because so many mules have been shipped from that town to South Africa there are not enough left to haul the wagons to supply the ice hungry.

OFF FOR CAMP AYCOCK

Companies of Second Regiment, N. C. S. G., Went Down to Wrightsville Yesterday.

WILMINGTON LIGHT INFANTRY

Made Most Creditable Showing, Headed by the Regimental Band—Col. W. B. Rodman in Command and Boys Generally in Good Spirits.

Camp Aycock, Wrightsville Sound, awoke from a two day's sleep last night to the sound of the tramping of the Second Regiment, North Carolina State Guard, which reached camp in its order late yesterday afternoon and will remain for ten days. The weather was ideal and the conditions were just of the kind, barring the occasional sting of a mosquito, to put everybody in a good humor and fill them with bright prospects for the encampment.

The various companies reached Wilmington by regular and special trains yesterday as previously detailed in these columns and were transported to the Sound on "specials" over the Seacoast Railroad.

The companies are all in with full ranks and the attendance of regimental officers is about perfect. Col. W. B. Rodman is in command, assisted by Lieutenant Col. W. A. Johnson, and the reputation of these well known officers in former encampments is enough to warrant that this one will be not only a pleasure but a profit to the boys of their command.

The list of officers of the regiment is as follows: Col. W. B. Rodman, commanding; Lieutenant Colonel W. A. Johnson; Maj. J. C. Bond, commanding First Battalion; Maj. H. C. Bragaw, commanding Second Battalion; Capt. J. C. Mallison, commanding Third Battalion; Capt. C. McD. Davis, Regimental Adjutant; Quartermaster E. F. Nadal; Maj. N. Anderson, Surgeon; Capt. E. M. Burkhimer, snare drum, and Junius Prempert, cymbals.

The Washington Light Infantry numbers 45 men in all and comes in great shape. They were burned out last Summer in the big fire in that city but they went to work and soon equipped themselves again without the aid of the State and have the best uniforms in the State Guard. Along with the Infantry is Col. W. B. Rodman, commanding the regiment; Rev. N. Harding, the chaplain; Capt. E. M. Brown, First Assistant surgeon; Sergeant Major M. W. Nash and Major H. C. Bragaw, commanding the Second Battalion. The company is in camp under the command of Lieutenant Z. M. Potts, Capt. Mallison being the senior captain of the regiment, is in command of the third battalion until an election is held this morning.

Speight, Sixth Corporal, Julien McCabe, and about thirty-five privates.

The company is well drilled and hopes to make a favorable showing with the other boys in camp. The company is short a few of its best members on account of the firemen's tournament at Charlotte. These however will join the company later. The Tarboro company has just received new uniforms but the boys are justly complaining about their arms, which they hope to have improved soon. The boys of the company are the pride of Edgecombe and come with provisions given them by the people of that great old county.

This company was organized two months ago with forty-nine men and does magnificently by bringing forty-five of these to camp. They have new uniforms and all necessary equipments necessary for an outing of many days. Besides their military equipments they bring baseballs, gloves, bats, boxing gloves, tennis net and everything to make their stay in camp most enjoyable. A large awning under which the company will hold its private meetings has been tendered the company by Colonel Alfred Williams.

The company is in good shape and brought 40 odd men into camp. The boys reached Fayetteville yesterday morning and were given the freedom of the F. L. I. armory until they left on the afternoon A. & Y. train. At noon they were served with an elegant lunch by the Fayetteville military. Col. S. J. Cobb, Inspector of Small Arms Practice, N. C. S. G., came into camp with the boys.

Of course Wilmington people are most interested in their own company, the Wilmington Light Infantry. It formed at the armory at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon and headed by the Second Regiment Band, it paraded the principal streets of the city and marched to the Seacoast Railway depot, from whence they left on the train for the Sound. The boys made a very creditable showing and under the excellent command of Capt. Adrian they will prove second to none in the regiment. The band also made a good showing and will easily prove to be the equal, if not the superior, of the three organizations of its kind in the Guard. The roster of the company and others obtainable last night are as follows:

LOCAL DOTS.

— British steamer Buckminster sailed yesterday from St. Michaels, Azores, for Wilmington, N. C.

— The sale of town lots at Teacheys, N. C., last Saturday, was a great success. Lots sold rapidly and at fair prices. Twenty three lots brought something over $2,000.

— A big excursion from Atlanta is expected on August 3rd. It will be under the auspices of the Carpenters' Union of Labor, of that city. A trip down the Cape Fear river will be one of the attractions.

— Miss Daisy B. Waitt, one of the popular teachers in the faculty of the Wilmington High School last term, will not return this Fall. She has accepted a position with the Raleigh public schools.

— Lena Hooper, the colored woman arrested Saturday night for shoplifting from the Five and Ten Cent Store, forfeited her bond in the municipal court yesterday in the sum of $25. Her bondsmen were David Hooper and J. B. Hooper.

— Hanover Lodge of Odd Fellows and its friends will journey to Carolina Beach on their annual excursion to-day. There will be four boats, one of which will connect with a train leaving the beach at 11 P. M. The list of attractions is large.

— Mr. T. M. Emerson has recently purchased a very handsome vapor launch which he will use as a pleasure boat at Wrightsville during the Summer and for hunting and fishing in the Winter. It is easily one of the prettiest and most conveniently appointed brought to these waters in some time.

— United States Bank Examiner Wm. A. Lamson, of Washington, D. C., yesterday completed a thorough investigation of the affairs of the Atlantic National Bank. It is quite unnecessary to say that he found everything in good shape, as the bank is easily recognized as the soundest and the most cleverly managed of any in the State.

'Twas the greatest hit of the year.

Really should have counted in the summary for two bases.

Won the game for Wilmington against Tarboro in the tenth inning and came off the willow of Captain Perry Thackara, who made his debut on the home grounds in an official capacity yesterday afternoon. The Giants were up to their necks in the game and got down to old-time business from the very start of the brush with the Tartars. The fifth inning had brought a tied score—three three—and then both teams worried along with that, chalking up goose eggs ever and anon until the Tartars had been put down in their half of the tenth. Morrisey, late of the Boston American League, and Willig, the new twirler for the Giants, were on the slab and were keeping the runs well scattered. But in the tenth "Wallie" Warren led off with a nice single and was sacrificed by McGinnis. Then with one man down, Warren on second and the rooters praying for a clean hit, Capt. "Thack" came up and swished at one of Morrisey's finest but swatted the second for a line drive down third base and "Walley" came across the rubber, cinching the game. Capt. "Thack" went as far as first base and upon returning to the bench received the glad hand from hundreds.

The game opened with a fan by Gilligan, a base for Pulsifer on Frost's wild throw. Spratt forced Pulsifer at second and Kemmer singled to centre. Foster flew out to centre. The locals got a man on third in their half, but could not score him. Frost singled, Devlin bunted safely and Frost got third without a man down. Sebring fouled out to Morrisey; Warren flew to deep centre and Devlin was cut off between first and second.

The visitors scored in the second on a hit hot to short by Russell, a pass for Hempleman, and a hit by Morrisey to centre, Slagle having bunted out to pitcher and Gilligan and Pulsifer having gone out to Stewart, Wilmington again placed a man on third, but was unable to score him. McGinnis safe on third's error; Thackara sacrificed; Allen safe on Kemmer's error; Stewart flew out and Willig fanned.

In the third, Spratt flew out; Kemmer got a pass; Foster flew out to Allen; Russell singled to left and Kemmer scored on Hempleman's hit to right; Slagle flew out to pitcher; "Jack" Frost got on tip toe then for a run for the locals and drove out two bases to centre; Devlin fanned and Sebring singled to centre and got second; Warren flew out to left scoring Frost; McGinnis got a pass and went to second on passed ball; Thackara was out on foul.

Both teams were blanked in the fourth and the Tartars came up in the fifth for a run on Kemmer's single; Foster's sacrifice and Hempleman's single. The score was tied by the Giants in their half. Devlin was out second to first and Sebring went to the left high brush for two cushions; Warren flew out to second; McGinnis hit to right and on wild throw home to cut off Sebring, the ball played all kind of antics with the fence and finally dropped over under the bleachers, allowing both runners to score. Thackara got a pass, Allen singled to right but "Thack" was thrown out attempting third.

Then each team was blanked every inning until the tenth, though both pitchers drew themselves out of deep holes at several stages of the game. It was not uncommon to have the bases full with even only one man down, but somehow, somewhere, something would happen to ward off a run.

The story of the tenth inning has already been told. It was a slugging match in the mild sense of the term, but the game upon the whole was good. Mr. Meade's umpiring gave some better satisfaction, though there were a few kicks by both teams. The Wilmington boys played manful ball and individually the players received the warmest commendation of the spectators.

The Giants Played in Their Old Form.

— Clayton will be in the game today.

— For a crippled team the Giants did wonderfully well.

— That two-base whack of Captain Thack was a crack a-jack.

— The Giants are getting into their old batting form again.

—Pitcher Oettig, of the Tarboro team, has been released.

— Deerfoot Sebring and Jack Frost did some fast base running again.

— Capt. Jimmie Cowan must feel proud of the auspicious beginning of his managerial career on the ball field.

— Honors were easy between Willig and Morrisey, which is a compliment to Willig. "There's life in the old land yet."

— That case of Schiedam Schnapps ordered for the Giants arrived yesterday, and it put the snap in them about right.

— The game will be called this afternoon at 4:15 o'clock. The batteries will be Stewart and Thackara for the Giants and Bush and Foster for the Tar Babies.

— Weddige, Tarboro's crack third baseman and heavy hitter, is confined to his hotel by sickness. He will likely not be able to play in the games here this week.

— Several new men are to be added to the Wilmington team just as soon as the necessary arrangements can be made. The managers are losing no time in this matter.

— Captain John Wilbur Jenkins, of the Raleigh Times, will no doubt be pleased to learn that his "canned lobsters" danced the can can all around and over the Tartars yesterday.

— O'Stein has been signed by Wilmington and will join the team tomorrow or Thursday. One or two more men are expected this week. O'Stein is now at Waynesboro, Ga.

— The Diamond Duster of the News and Observer will please send a derrick to Komical King Kelly. His esteemed Turtles are flat on their backs in Charlotte and can't be turned over by hand power.

— No one could reasonably expect the Giants to be at the top when the second series closes. But by hard work, they can be in the second place. In first place in the first series and in second place in the second series will be a fine record.

— The Tarboro soldier boys who came all the way from camp to root and hoot and toot for the Tartars were a lively set. So long as the score stood three to one in favor of the Tartars they were intoxicated with delight; but they grew weak when the Giants tied it, and when that fourth and winning run came in the tenth Inning the troopers "folded their tents and silently stole away."

— The schedule for the second series provides for fifty-four games. Of these the Wilmington team has played only eleven, leaving forty three games yet to be played in the regular series. It will be seen, therefore, that there is ample time for Wilmington to recover its lost prestige. All that is necessary is the strengthening of the team and a determination of the members to work in perfect harmony.

— In addition to the forty three games to be played in the regular series, eleven games will be played by the two teams winning the champion ships in the two series. The net proceeds of these eleven games, it is understood, will go to the individual players. To say nothing of pride, it is the personal and pocket interest, therefore, of every member of the Wilmington team to do his very best. If the Giants remain at the bottom, but little interest will be taken in the play-off games and, consequently, the attendance and gate receipts will be small.

COUNTY BOND ISSUE.

Securities Sold Yesterday to Cleveland, Ohio, Firm at Their Par Value.

WALKER MEMORIAL HOSPITAL

The Formal Transfer From Executors Will be Made To-morrow—Board of Commissioners Held Meeting Yesterday Afternoon---Jurors.

The bonds to the amount of $50,000 for public road improvement recently voted by the citizens of New Hanover County were yesterday floated by the County Commissioners at a special meeting of the Board called for this purpose.

There were four bidders for the securities but the sale was made to W. J. Hays & Son, the well known financial firm of Cleveland, Ohio, which agreed to pay par value for same, it being understood that they are to yield four per cent. interest, payable semi-annually on the first day of January and July each year. The sale is regarded as a very good one and the money for same is expected to be available within 60 days. The other bidders for the bonds were Rudolph Kleyboldte & Co., Feder Holtzeman & Co., and Sherwood & Meyer, all of Cincinnati; but each of them required the payment of a commission on the sale, which the successful bidder did not.

The bonds mature in 25 years and a sinking fund for the interest and principal has been established by the commissioners, which will fully liquidate them at the end of that period. Chairman McEachern, of the Board, has also made arrangements by which the amount derived from the sale of bonds will be deposited in bank at the same rate of interest as is paid to the Ohio firm, thus practically eliminating for the present at least, the payment of actual interest. The treasurer of the county affords security in addition to that of the bank by giving an extra bond for the custody of this fund.

Another important matter settled upon at yesterday afternoon's meeting was the matter of the formal transfer of the splendid James Walker Memorial Hospital from the executors of the last will and testament of the late Mr. Walker to the city and county to whom it was so munificently donated. There will be no exercises of a public character to mark the transfer and the same will take place on to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock at the splendid structure in the northern stern section of the city. There will, however, be present upon the occasion of the formal transfer, all members of the Board of Aldermen, City Board of Audit and Finance, Board of County Commissioners, Board of Managers of the new institution and Messrs. James Sprunt and Wm. Gilchrist, executors of the estate of Mr. Walker.

The deed has already been drawn for the transfer and it will be made within the presence of members of the several boards as stated above.

For the arrangement of the transfer yesterday afternoon there were present with the commissioners, Col. Warren G. Elliott, president, the members of the Hospital Board of Managers and Alderman J. F. Maunder, representing the city.

It is intimated that the Hospital Managers now have arrangements about complete for an up-to-date equipment of the magnificent new building and when these plans are consummated there will be public exercises of a more elaborate character, befitting the gift.

Routine Matters at the Meeting.

About the only other items of business, which engaged the attention of the board yesterday afternoon was the appointment of Messrs. Holmes and Montgomery to look after certain increased property valuations for taxes and the hearing of a number of unimportant petitions from citizens.

The following jurors were drawn to serve at the August term of the New Hanover Superior Court for the trial of criminal cases only: John Roddick, H. W. Strickland, William T. Shepard, T. J. Manager and Captain Resigned and Their Successors Elected--Reinforcements

Two important resignations and two important elections had things all agog in baseball circles yesterday. The resignations were those of Manager H. B. Peschau, who looked after the affairs of the Wilmington team, through its brilliant season in the Virginia Carolina league and in the State League until Saturday night, and that of Short Stop Clayton, who has captained the team with much ability since the departure of Stafford about a month ago. The elections were Mr. James H. Cowan as manager to succeed Mr. Peschau and Catcher Perry Thackara to succeed Capt. Clayton. Without discounting the services of those resigned, it may be said that both selections are good ones and under the new management the STAR hopes to see the team emblazon its way steadily but surely to its old-time glory.

Another good left handed pitcher, with splendid batting record, has been signed; Champ O'Stein has been wired transportation to return to the team, and the members here have gotten together, settled all petty grievances and have gone to work to win—for example, yesterday's game at Hilton.

A meeting of the team was held yesterday in the office of the Fishblate Clothing Company and a firm determination was registered by our boys—and there are none better in the league—to do or to die.

The new men are expected by tomorrow.

Suit For Damage.

Herbert McClammy, Esq., and Messrs. Bellamy & Bellamy, attorneys for E. J. Sikes, yesterday filed notice with the Clerk of the Superior Court of a suit for damages which they have brought for their client against the Wilmington Gas Light Company. While no complaint has been filed, it is understood that $20,000 will be the amount asked. The claim is for injury to the defendant by reason of the falling upon him of alleged defective doors in the boiler room of the company. It is claimed that one of his limbs was broken; that he was wounded internally and that he received other injuries, for all of which he asks damage in the sum named.

The Lawn Party To-day.

The STAR is requested to say that there will be no lawn party at the residence of Mrs. M. E. Gralbin this afternoon and evening as announced.

DEATH OF A BRIGHT YOUNG GIRL.

Little Marie Grace Clawson Passed Away at 9:45 O'clock Last Night.

Perhaps no death in Wilmington in some time has caused more general regret or greater sorrow than that of little Miss Marie Grace Clawson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Clawson, which occurred last night at 9:45 o'clock at the home of her parents on Front between Walnut and Red Cross streets. She had been ill for nearly a month with typhoid fever and for the past few days her condition had been critical. The death was not wholly unexpected but it came as a sad blow to the devoted parents, who in her death, give up their only child—the pride of a father's and mother's heart.

Little Marie was born in Columbia, S. C., on August 16th, 1886, and had she lived for a little more than three weeks longer, she would have been 15 years of age. She was a child of a most sunny and lovable disposition and was possessed of a sweet Christian character. She was a devoted member of Grace M. E. Church and though quite young, took an active interest in its work. At the time of her death she was organist of the Junior Branch, Epworth League, and had also served one year as its secretary. By her death, the church, Sunday School and other auxiliary organizations lost a most earnest worker and a devoted member.

The sympathy of the entire community is poured out to the grief stricken parents.

The funeral will be conducted at 5:30 o'clock this afternoon from Grace M. E. Churbh and the interment will be in Oakdale.

TUESDAY MORNING, JULY 23.

THE SHIP SUBSIDY FRAUD.

Hannah's Ship Subsidy scheme will doubtless be urged upon Congress when it meets, for there is too much money in it for the schemers to abandon it. Realizing the necessity of doing something to more effectually disguise and cover the steal they have been remodelling it in some respects, hoping thus to overcome some of the strong objections that have been made to it. But they will have to do a good deal of remodelling to put it in shape to make it acceptable to the American people however they may succeed with the Republican majority in Congress, when the caucus whip is applied. The only way they can possibly force it through will be by making it a party measure, because there are Republican Representatives and Senators who do not favor the Hanna scheme nor any other ship subsidy scheme, not seeing the necessity for anything of the kind and not seeing where subsidized ships would help their constituents or give them or the country an equivalent for the money they would have to pay in subsidies.

Like the manufacturers who still demand a high protective tariff the ship subsidy advocates are confronted by facts and figures that are an answer in advance to their pleadings. The high protectionists are confronted by the fact that our manufacturers are competing with the world, with the very countries against which they are protected, and the reason given is because they can produce goods at less cost than the same goods can be produced in other countries. Logically that lays them out when they ask protection against the cheap labor of other countries.

The ship subsidy schemers are confronted by the fact that we are building ships without subsidies, and building more ships now than we did before the subsidy scheme was planned, and more than we did last year when the schemers failed to rush it, as they hoped to, through Congress. They declare that subsidies are necessary when the facts prove that they are not. But they say that other countries grant subsidies, and that if we expect to have a merchant marine to compete with them we must do as other countries do. They try to create the impression that it is by subsidies that other countries have established merchant marines, when the subsidies granted out a very small figure and in some maritime nations no figure at all. As an illustration of this we clip the following from the New Orleans Picayune, showing the amount of subsidies granted by the countries named, the principal maritime countries of the Old World:

"A parliamentary paper just issued by the British Government gives some interesting particulars in regard to bounties on shipbuilding paid by various countries.

"The report embodies replies received from its principal representatives abroad and the figures may be assumed to be correct. No figures are given for Austria, but the amount paid has been increased slightly each year, and the total tonnage shows a steady, though small, increase each year for the last ten years. In Belgium the bounty system was abandoned in 1852, as it had produced no appreciable results, while proving a considerable burden on the treasury. Since that date no bounties have been granted, but numerous laws have been passed with a view to increasing the Belgian merchant fleet, either by admitting vessels transferred to the Belgian flag, or shipbuilding materials in the first instance at reduced rates, and, finally in 1864, entirely free of duty. In France the total amount of bounties has fluctuated somewhat during the last ten years, but last year was almost at the highest point, £648,000 ($3,240,000). In addition, £1,067,271 ($5,336,355) was paid for subventions for postal services. In this there has been a small yearly increase. Sir Edward Monson further reports that the mercantile marine was 957,755 tons last year, the highest figure yet reached, and has increased for the last six years, although, owing to fluctuations in the previous years, the increase since 1899 is only slight.

"In Germany the amount paid in bounties has increased from £200,000 ($1,000,000) in 1889 to £325,000 ($1,625,000) in 1898. In addition, £65,000 ($325,000) is paid annually to the Hamburg-American and North German Lloyd lines for the carriage of American mails. The tonnage of merchant ships has, in the same period, increased from 320,721 tons to 630,552 tons. The report further adds that the above figures do not show so large an increase in the total German owned tonnage during the past decade as might, perhaps, be expected, and this fact may be owing to some extent, to the circumstances that the German owned shipping in the Baltic ports decreased from 449,000 tons in 1871, to 270,000 in 1896. On the other hand, the shipping owned at the two prominent North Sea ports, Hamburg and Bremen, has experienced a considerable increase during the past ten years. In Japan, the amount paid in 1890 was £153,563 $767,815.) It has increased so greatly since that in 1899 it was £584,696 ($2,923,480). The tonnage of steamships of foreign build has increased in the same period from 88,816 tons to 275,185 tons, and of sailing ships from 148 tons to 18,394 tons. The tonnage of ships of native build shows a slight decrease."

Reference to these figures will show that France, Germany and Japan combined pay subsidies amounting to $7,788,880, while our subsidy grabbers ask for $9,000,000, not for one, two or three years but for a period of twenty years, making a total of $180,000,000 they want, even if they do not ask for extension of the grab period after the twenty years have expired, which they most assuredly would. The beneficiaries of such grabs never let go if they can help it, as is strikingly shown by the persistent demand from the beneficiaries of the protective tariff, who when first pleading for it declared they only wanted it until the "infant industries" were strong enough to stand alone, and now when they are fully grown and boasting about their ability to knock their foreign competitors out, they are as importunate for it as ever, while some of them, and some of the most robust, too, protest that they would perish without it.

A powerful argument showing that subsidies are not necessary to enable Americans to build ships is furnished by the last report of Eugene T. Chamberlain, Commissioner of Navigation, which shows that in the past fiscal year 1,173 vessels were built having a gross tonnage of 401,283 tons compared with 1,058 vessels having a gross tonnage of 305,677 tons during the preceding year. Here is an increase of 115 vessels and nearly 100,000 tons in twelve months. The Commissioner points out that this increase was exceeded only twice, in 1854 and 1855, when this country was leading the world in building fast wooden vessels, for the simple reason that having all the necessary material and an abundance of skilled labor ships could then be built cheaper here than in any other country. The wooden vessel has given way to the iron and steel vessel, but we have an abundance of iron, can make steel cheaper than any country in the world, and for these reasons we can build iron and steel vessels as cheaply or more cheaply here than they can be built in any country in Europe.

If they want to see steel vessels built in this country, all they have to do is to break the monopoly of the Steel Trust, so as to compel it to sell steel to our ship builders as low as it sells to foreign ship builders. When foreign ship builders can get their steel seven or eight dollars a ton less than our ship builders can, of course they have that much the advantage of them and the men who persist in prepetuating the protective tariff while professing to desire the restoration of our merchant marine, and are begging for subsidies, are responsible for it.

IT WON'T DO.

The general impression was that the Virginia Constitutional Convention was called mainly for the purpose of adjusting the suffrage question so as to eliminate the mass of negro voters. That was the principal reason urged in the State Democratic Convention for the calling of the convention. The issue was made square; the advocates of radical action were strong enough to control the convention, and the presumption was that when the convention assembled it would take such action as would eliminate the bulk of the negroes.

But now that the convention has got down to the discussion of that question it seems to halt and hesitate at doing the thing for which it was called. There seems to be a disposition to confine action and base the qualification for suffrage on the payment of poll tax which shall apply equally to white and black.

Requiring the payment of poll tax is all right, and if the object be to increase the revenues of the State it may be a good move, but if the object be to eliminate the ignorant negro and give white men control of the State, it doesn't go far enough and will therefore prove a failure. The result will be not to keep the objectionable mass of negroes out of politics but to bring them in more numerously. The party or men who want their votes will pay the poll tax and get them, just as the politicians in Pennsylvania pay the poll taxes there and control the votes of that class of voters who wouldn't pay poll tax themselves.

The convention should meet this question candidly and courageously do what it was called to do and abide the consequences. As to the matter of constitutionality involved in such questions, possibly this may become a subject of litigation, and if it do, and in the court of last appeal it be decided that a State has no right to discrimnate in any way as between the races, then Virginia would not be any worse off than she is now. If this convention fails to meet the popular expectation it will be a long time before another convention will be called, and in the meantime there will be a good many disappointed and disgusted white men in Virginia.

CATTLE RAISING IN THE SOUTH.

Cattle raising ought to be a large industry in the South, and probably will be some day. It is increasing now and many cattle are grown and fattened in and shipped from States, which a few years ago gave but little, if any, attention to this subject. The Southern Farm Gazette, in discussing this question, says:

"We have been able to make calves for the first six months of their lives to grow two pounds a day on good pasture with their mothers. The station has been able to make them 600 to 700 pounds at one year old. Mr. E. R. Lloyd, agriculturist of the station, has just given the figures on some 2-year old steers weighing about 1,000 pounds in St. Louis and selling for $4.75 on foot. After feeding these steers since weaning time on 50 cent corn, cotton seed meal costing $21 25 and hulls costing $3 90 a ton, they show a profit of $20 each."

After calling attention to an exhibit of some results attained in the Arkansas Experiment Station, it adds:

'Say the planter has 400 acres of cotton, 100 acres corn and peas, and say 100 acres open land for summer pasture and 200 to 300 of woods and cane, he ought to have no trouble raising cattle enough by feeding his seed alone to turn off 100 $40 beef cattle each year."

These are facts and figures which speak for themselves, and are in line with the experience of others who have engaged in this industry. Near Atlanta, and also near Charlotte many cattle bought in the surrounding country or imported from Texas are fattened on cotton seed hulls and shipped to Northern and Western markets, but this is only one feature and the least important feature of the industry. What is wanted is to raise the cattle on the farms and make the South a cattle raising country, thus putting money in the pockets of our farmers, and at the same time improving the land on which the cattle are pastured.

A Jersey City boy who found one of the old time pistols which "wasn't loaded" invited another boy "to open his mouth and shut his eyes." The invited boy was accommodating enough to do it, when the pistol finder put the muzzle in the opened mouth and pulled the trigger. The result was a piece of tongue clipped off and several teeth knocked out. If the old pistol had not been debilitated by age it might have accomplished a good deal more.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—— The latest plan of the pension raiders to get rid of Commissioner Evans is to have him appointed Governor of Porto Rico. The further away the office is to which they can "promote" Evans the more comfortable the raiders will feel.—Louisville Courier-Journal, Dem.

—— There was an "irrepressible conflict" pushed by the North against South, on the question of white free labor and black slave labor. There may be an "irrepressible conflict" impending, largely at the North between labor and capital, whose conditions were very much affected by the results of the war between the states.—Augusta Chronicle, Dem.

—— The average speed on her latest eastward trip of the ocean steamship Deutschland—23.51 knots per hour—constitutes a new record in transatlantic passages. Had the Hamburg-American flyer been sailing on the New York-Liverpool route this rate of speed would have brought her to Queenstown in four days and twenty-three hours, thus realizing the shipmaster's long cherished dream of a five-day boat between land and land across seas.—Philadelphia Record, Dem.

—— While discussing the generally prosperous condition of the country, Secretary Long says, in a speech delivered in Massachusetts: "When I think of results like these I cannot help saying that something of them is due to the character of our Southern representatives. The Southern member, though we have differed from him, has been a leaven working toward the honesty of the native character, and toward the high standard it has always maintained of personal integrity." A good opportunity is afforded just now for the extension of these liberal views to one Southerner in the naval service.—Baltimore Herald, Ind.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

— Newton Enterprise: A company has been organized in Hickory with a capital of $25,000 to establish a furniture factory.

— Newbern News: At a meeting of the creditors of Mr. S. H. Loftin, of Kinston, held here before L. J. Moore, referee in bankruptcy, Saturday afternoon, Mr. Loftin was declared a bankrupt and was given ten days to file a schedule of his assets.

—Raleigh Post: The secretary issued a grant Saturday conveying two sections of Catawba river bed to George A. Mebane, One of the grants involves 150 acres and the other 250. One is in Catawba and the other Alexander county. The object of the applicant for the grant probably desires to get control of desirable water power. This seems to be an instance where the title of land owners along the river only extend to the low water mark of the river on either side.

— Durham Sun: Farmers from different sections report that crops are sorry, owing to so much rain. A farmer who was here to day from Garner, Wake county, says that not more than half a crop will be made in that section. The rains have damaged the watermelon crop, causing those that are reaching maturity to be smaller than they otherwise would be. —— Odd as it may seem, yet nevertheless it is a fact, the Sun has had a compositor for a number of years that can read any kind of writing, no matter how difficult, yet he cannot write.

— Lexington Dispatch: Mr. Henry Shaw, formerly of Salisbury, was killed in Atlanta Friday. He was a lineman and received a fatal shock. His brother, who was with him, grasped him and with great exertion carried him down the pole. He died in a few minutes. —— The escape of Master Egbert Hankins, the 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jno. K. Hankins, from instant death near the depot last Thursday morning can hardly be classed as anything less than a miracle. A freight train was shifting cars on the main line of the Southern railway. Master Egbert endeavored to catch one of the cars which was being backed along the line. In an instant the car knocked him flat upon the center of the track. With wonderful presence of mind he lay perfectly still until four freight cars had passed over him, when he was rescued entirely uninjured, with the exception of a slight bruise where the car struck him when it knocked him down. Parties who witnessed the accident were horrified and expected to gather up his mangled body after the cars passed. It was indeed a narrow escape from death, and had he moved his body only slightly while the cars were passing he would have been ground to pieces.

— Winston Sentinel: Twenty-five negroes left here this morning. Some were bound for the North and others for West Virginia. A railroad man tells the Sentinel that many Winston negroes are returning. Some walk back and others beat the freight trains. Eleven were put off a freight train at Rocky Mount, on the N. & W., yesterday. —— The Sentinel was shown an old check this morning on the Wachovia National bank. The remarkable feature is that the bank held the amount of money called for. The check was written on April 14, 1888, and was given by Gilmer, Wilson & Co., who were at that time running the old Orinoco warehouse, to Dr. James Hickerson, the amount being $18.15 The check was misplaced, but the warehouse left the amount to the bank. The check was sent to Shepherd & Norfleet yesterday by R. L. Hickerson, a merchant at Ronda, in payment for a bill of hardware. —— J. W. Shamel, of Donnaha, a successful farmer, was here to-day. He reports the outlook for crops in his section discouraging. Mr. Shamel said that the wheat standing in shocks had sprouted in the head, and the top of the shocks standing in the field are green. Only about half of the crop in his section has been threshed. The corn is growing tall but "spindling," and will not yield half a crop. In some places the grass is choaking it out. Tobacco is looking very poor, caused by wet weather. Mr. Shamel says the crop outlook is anything but promising.

Euphemistic in the Extreme.

The rapid extension of polite terms appears to a Madison avenue resident to threaten an era of Chesterfieldian courtesy. A negro boy whose duty it is to look after the family wash when taken to task for a delay of several days replied:

"The washlady says that the wash gentleman was sick and she had to wait on him."

The presumption was that the husband of the laundress had been ill.—Baltimore Sun.

Between Snores.

"How that wind shakes the sashes, dear!" said Mrs. Shadyside nervously to her husband while the gale was high.

FLORENCE, S. C., Nov. 26, 1900.

I was first advised by our family physician in Charleston to use TARTHINA with our baby when she was but a very young infant, as a preventive of colic and to warm and sweeten the stomach. Later it was useful in teething troubles, and its effect has been found to be so very beneficial and so free from the dangers that are consequent upon the use of drugs and soothing syrups, that we have come to regard it, after use with three children, as one of the necessities when there is a new baby in the house and until the teething troubles are over, and we take pleasure in recommending it to our friends instead of the horrid stuff that so many people use to keep their babies quiet.

COTTON MARKETS.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, July 22.—Cotton had an irregular movement all day and local sentiment from the very beginning was mixed to an unusual degree. News in hand was conflicting, while business from the outside was not sufficiently regular, either way to allow of room traders depending upon it for backing. The opening was barely steady with prices unchanged to three points higher, a poor response to better English cables than expected, light port receipts and favorable advices from Southern spot markets. Soon after the call liquidation set in on quite extensive lines and forced prices rapidly lower, the decline at one time reaching nine points. Reports of light showers to hard rains in parts of the Central and Western belt created distrust in bull circles and prompted bear selling for a small turo. Before midday the market was on the upward tack with the pit covering its shorts. New Orleans stiffened up quite sharply in the early afternoon and sent a number of buying orders here, all of which tended to strengthen bull confidence. But in the absence of liberal support the bulls were slow to take the aggressive and late events proved to be of a most matter of fact order. The forecast indicated thundershowers all over the South west except western Texas, which will remain clear and warm. Private crop accounts from Texas were conflicting. Clearances for export to-day 26,000 bales and included 10,000 bales from New York and 7,000 bales from Galveston, for the continent. The July option held relatively firm position to the rest of the list but was very dull all day. The close was quiet with prices net two points higher to eight points lower.

WEDDED BY EATING.

ODD MARRIAGE CEREMONY OF THE NAVAJO INDIANS.

A Pudding Instead of a Ring Used to Join the Happy Couple, Who Eat With Their Fingers From the Same Dish, Cooked by the Medicine Man.

This quaint story of a wedding among the Navajo Indians is related by a white man now working as a missionary with this tribe. The Navajo reservation takes in a large strip of country in New Mexico and Arizona, and the Indians number nearly 20,000. The missionary writes as follows:

"A short time ago we were invited to be in attendance at a marriage ceremony of one of the Navajo braves to one of the fairest daughters of the reservation. This ceremony was to be performed in the true Indian custom about four miles from Fort Defiance at about 7 o'clock in the evening. We arrived at the designated hut at the appointed time, and a tree was pointed out to us where we could tie our horses. A considerable number of Indians were already there. The government agent at Fort Defiance and the blacksmith were also invited, and they entered the hut a short time after we had arrived.

"The squaws were all busily engaged in baking bread, frying meat and boiling coffee, for all Navajo ceremonies must be preceded by a sumptuous feast. A good meal must be eaten before the medicine man can administer his 'holy medicine.' We have often wished that we might have a phonograph here in order that we might keep a record of the clear and resonant voices of the Navajoes. When they have once started to sing with all their might and main so that the beads of perspiration trickle down their cheeks, they offer a sight that would put any stranger on the run. Their howling far surpasses than of a pack of wolves.

"Fifty braves had gathered on this occasion and two chiefs who put on a great many airs. The cause of the feeling of superiority with those chiefs is that the government has appointed them as judges to settle all disputes and trivial differences that may arise among the members of the tribe. On account of this they have the opinion that they possess a great deal of wisdom and must be respected accordingly. One can readily imagine that these chiefs are the worst rascals among the Indians, except possibly the medicine men.

"Some of the braves became impatient when they were compelled to wait a short time for the supper and went outside to roast a sheep at their own expense over a campfire. But we were all soon seated about the table in the hut and enjoying our supper immensely. After we had partaken of the meal a large earthen dish was brought forth, and the medicine man, who then acted in the capacity of priest, began the making of a pudding. We ascertained from the Indians at our side that this was to be the wedding cake. While seated in the hut the approach of many horses could be heard. These, we learned, were from the bridegroom as pay to his father-in-law for his prospective bride.

"After the pudding was well done, it was placed in a basket made for that special purpose, and the medicine man, carrying a jug of water and the basket, headed the procession of the bride and her friends to a new hut, where the bridegroom stood in waiting for his future wife. We followed the procession and entered the hut, where we were given reserved seats at the side of the medicine man. He commanded the bride and groom to be seated next each other. Then, taking the jug, he poured water on the hands of the bride and commanded her to wash both hands of her future husband. Thereupon the bridegroom was commanded to do likewise to the hands of his bride. This ceremony impressed us a great deal, for it shows the true mutual submission both husband and wife must be willing to undergo.

"After the hands of both had been washed the wedding cake, or, rather, pudding, was placed before the bridal pair, and after it had been covered with holy powder the exact places where they must eat from it with their fingers was pointed out to them. Following the command, the young man put his right hand into the pudding and began eating, the bride followed his example and began to eat of the pudding where the impression of her future husband's fingers were still to be seen.

"After the bridal pair had made the circuit of the entire dish, eating as they went, the medicine man declared the ceremony complete with the simple word 'kaddih,' and the couple stood before the assembly as man and wife. It did appear to us as really odd to see a couple united with the simple ceremony of eating. We wondered why this ceremony was not accompanied by a song and asked if that was the end of it, whereupon we received the simple affirmative of 'ow.'

"Bread and coffee were then brought to the party, and all began to eat for the second time, to the honor of the bridal pair. We also partook of the bread, which really tasted good, but passed the wedding 'pudding,' which was now given to the party. The pudding looked tempting and must have tasted good, judging from the manner in which the Indian guests reached for it.

"This marriage ceremony is not infrequent among the Indians, for they believe in plural marriages, and some have a number of wives. Very few white people have witnessed the ceremony, however, and possibly few would care to see it the second time. Divorces are also just as frequent among the Indians. This is an evil against which we have to contend."—Grand Rapids Press.

Old Fashioned Grandmothers.

Persons who still cling with some love to old ways and old fashions will read with approval Temple Bailey's dainty little lament over the "Passing of the Grandmother" in Woman's Home Companion. He says in part:

"The status of the grandmother of the past was fixed and immovable. Having once acquired the title, she was allowed no other. Her individuality as woman, wife and mother was lost, and she was ever afterward recognized as one who should set aside all personal ambition and dedicate herself to the care of her children's children.

"Today we have few grandmothers of that type. Secure in the doctrine of individual rights, the grandmother of modern times declines to sacrifice her life to the demands of others. Her life is her own, she argues. She has raised her own children, and now is her time for rest. Her daughter must attend to the rising generation.

"But from the children's standpoint the passing of the grandmother is a calamity. They will read the stories of the past and will long for the tender hearts and willing hands that gave themselves in service. Perhaps the hearts are just as tender today, but the hands are engaged in other work, and childish minds have a strange way of looking for actions rather than motives. The children want the grandmother whose kitchen is a fairyland of spicy odors and forbidden sweets, not the grandmother who drives them to the fine candy shop and treats them to chocolates and Scotch kisses. In their small minds better is the corn in the popper with molasses taffy made at home than ice cream and marrons glace from the confectioner. The modern child may have many advantages, but he will still envy his ancestors who in childhood sat and watched the molasses bubbling, bubbling as it boiled in a caldron, the firelight making flickering shadows as their grandmother told them tales of primitive days, of bears and Indians and wars."

London School Children.

The London school board is responsible for the education of a population more than double that of Denmark or Greece, larger than that of Scotland and only exceeded slightly by that of Bavaria and Holland. Th. child population of London in need of elementary education is larger than the total population of any European city except Paris, Berlin, St. Petersburg, Moscow and Vienna. It is more than double the population of Bristol, Dresden or Prague. The sum annually expended on elementary education in the metropolis is alone equal to the total national expenses of Denmark, Norway and Sweden, not to mention that of many minor states of Europe.

Human Beehives.

"In many of New York city's blocks," says a statistician, "there are as many as 2,500 persons gathered together, and in one space of four blocks 500 by 1,500 feet there herd together 10,000 persons, a city in itself. In the borough of Manhattan the number of persons to a dwelling is 23.2, in Philadelphia 5.0 and in Chicago 8.60.

"In the one block between Sixty-first and Sixty-second streets, Tenth and Eleventh avenues, are lodged 3,580 persons in 2,030 rooms, only 1,198 of which have access to the outer air. The west side block is 200 by 800 feet, has a surface area of 160,000 square feet, or 3.67 acres, so its 3,580 of population represents a density of 974.6 per acre.

"In the block on the east side bounded bmy Stanton, Houston, Attorney and Ridge streets, size 200 by 800, the population per acre is 1,771. In the Sixty-first street block and the two adjoining blocks there reside 2,011 colored persons, 15 more than 11 per cent of the whole colored population of the city."

Not Skillful.

Tim Murphy, the comedian, saw an old colored woman sitting under an awning fanning herself when he was in Washington one summer.

"It's dreadfully hot, isn't it, mummy?" asked Mr. Murphy.

"'Deed it is, chile," said the old woman—"'deed it is. 'Tain't right for it to be so hot this-a-way. I tell you, 40 years ago, when the blessed Lawd made the weather, we didn't have these stewing days, honey, no, 'deed, we didn't; but now these biggety men up at this here weather office has the making of the weather they does send us anything they please, and they ain't skillful, chile, they ain't skillful."

Prevented a Tragedy.

Timely information given Mrs. George Long, of New Straitsville, Ohio, prevented a dreadful tragedy and saved two lives. A frightful cough had long kept her awake every night. She had tried many remedies and doctors, but steadily grew worse until urged to try Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle wholly cured her, and she writes this marvelous medicine also cured Mr. Long of a severe attack of Pneumonia. Such cures are positive proof of the matchless merit of this grand remedy for curing all throat, chest and lung troubles. Only 50c and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed. Trial bottles 10c at R. R. BELLAMY'S Drug Store. †

THE LATEST AS TO NERVES AND STRENGTH

It is not muscle so much as the nerves back of muscle which show one's strength and power of endurance. And the study with able physicians of to-day is how to keep the nerves in perfect health and fitted for the strain of everyday living. Headache of every type, nerve weakness, dyspepsia, sleeplessness, langnor, restlessness, nervous dyspepsia, muscular weakness, brain weariness, poor circulation,—a thousand different unpleasant feelings and symptoms are due to nerve waste and nerve weakness,—especially in women and children. But how can all this be prevented, one will ask? How can my broken-down constitution be repaired, and nerve strength and full, robust health be secured. Just two points to remember: Determine that you will grow strong in nerves and health, and decide to use at once that most famous nerve cure, DOCKLIN. It is delicious in taste, quick in action and makes the wearied nerves tingle with renewed strength and every function the stronger and faculty the brighter by its use. Druggists sell it.

TUESDAY MORNING, JULY 23.

CORN AND WHEAT MARKETS.

Excitement On the New York Produce Exchange—A Rapid Advance in Prices of Products.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, July 22.—The crowd which surrounded the corn ring was larger than usual this morning. Brokers with their hands full of buying orders were constantly beseiged by messenger boys bringing dispatches that told of continued hot dry weather all over the corn belt. The bell at 10:30 o'clock transformed this nervous crowd of brokers into a crowd of excited men. To the gallery it looked like a veritable bedlam. News coming in from the West told of advances in price and only added fuel to the excitement. There being few sellers the price jumped rapidly. Even wheat was affected and before the day was out robbed corn of its leading place and absorbed most of the conservative element itself. This double market was something new on 'Change and attracted the attention of the whole floor. The bulls claimed that spring wheat was being ruined by excessive heat and the public, evidently believing the reports to a considerable extent, sent in a stream of buying orders. September, which closed Saturday at 73¾c, opened at 74¼c and by noon was up to 76c. The strain was heavy, but as orders kept coming prices kept rising until before the close 77⅛c was touched. Then there was a reaction to 77⅛c, followed with a later curb rise to 77½c. Foreign houses bought freely for French account and cables were generally strong and higher. Corn, although opening two cents higher at 60¼c for September, kept right on jumping throughout the day until 62½c was reached, or 4c rise for the day against 3 to 3¼c net advance for wheat. The close left traders unsettled.

PROSPECT OF LYNCHING.

The Mayor of Santa Paula, Cal., Shot and Probably Fatally Wounded by a Tough Citizen.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

SANTA PAULA, CAL., July 22.—Mayor Hugh O'Hara, of this place, was shot and probably fatally wounded Sunday by Charles Waxsmith, an employe of the Union Oil Well Supply Company. Since the shooting the town has been in a state of turmoil, and for a time there was prospect of a lynching. There was a meeting of three hundred angry citizens and the greatest excitement prevailed. The crime was vigorously denounced and measures were taken to rid the town of objectionable characters.

The shooting was the result of the Mayor's efforts to preserve order among persons who insisted on fighting in the streets. Four machinists, Charles Waxsmith, George Gregg, H. A. Wokley and John Bottoms, are under arrest. The Mayor ordered the four men arrested for fighting with a Mexican, but before they were apprehended Waxsmith secured a pistol and deliberately shot the Mayor, who was sitting in front of his own house.

STRIKE IN SAN FRANCISCO.

Twenty-five Hundred Teamsters Quit Work—Porters May Follow.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., July 22.—Wholesale and retail business houses to-day experienced great difficulty in having their goods hauled owing to a strike of teamsters. It is estimated that 2,500 teamsters have quit and it is thought this number will be greatly increased during the next few days. The employers are, it is said, determined not to yield a point to the strikers. If the strike shall continue other branches of labor will be affected. Porters undoubtedly will go out and longshoremen may refuse to handle goods for non union drivers or for firms employing non union men.

CHINESE INDEMNITY.

Plan for Payment to the Powers by the Chinese Adopted.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, July 22.—The State Department received a dispatch to day from Commissioner Rockhill, at Pekin, announcing that a plan for the payment of the indemnity to the Powers by the Chinese government finally had been adopted. The amortization of the bonds to be issued will begin in 1902, and the plan contemplates the entire liquidation of both principal and interest by 1940. It is expected that China will raise 23,000,000 annually. This sum is to be used to pay the interest on the bonds and to form a sinking fund for the ultimate liquidation of the principal.

CHRGED WITH MURDER.

Four Negro Soldiers On Trial in the Criminal Court at Dallas, Texas.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

DALLAS, TEXAS, July 22.—Four negro enlisted men of Company A, Twenty-fifth Infantry, are on trial in the Dallas Criminal District Court, charged with murder. This is a case growing out of an attack on the city prison at El Paso last year, when a policeman was killed and several persons wounded. One of the negroes turned State's evidence. The cases were brought to Dallas on a change of venue.

The Traders' Grain Company, of Kansas City, stopped payment yesterday and it is said the liabilities amount to $150,000. The failure was caused by the advance in both corn and wheat, aided by the heavy buying of country customers.

NO CHANGE IN STEEL STRIKE.

The Expected Did Not Happen Either at Wellsville or McKeesport.

EVERYTHING WAS VERY QUIET

At Wellsville Importation of Men Failed to Materialize and at McKeesport No Attempt Was Made to Resume Work.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

PITTSBURG, July 22.—The expected did not happen to-day in the Amalgamated strike. Neither of the looked for programmes for Wellsville or McKeesport was carried out. At Wellsville the importation of men failed to materialize, and at McKeesport the attempt to resume at the Dewes Wood plan was not made.

At both points, which are considered by each side to be strike centers, the situation is in statu quo, neither of the parties to the controversy having made any decided move. From the other important point, Duncansville, conflicting reports are received, and the result of the quiet struggle going on between the American Steel Hoop Company and the Amalgamated Association is still uncertain, with the company's chances practically better for winning in the end.

Late this afternoon the Amalgamated Association issued its first strike bulletin from the general offices. In the most prominent part of the bulletin is printed the warning words: "Do not drink, especially if the trust tries to break the strike by importing non-union men. Don't believe any one who says the mills will be closed forever or taken out of the community if you don't go to work."

Further on are the words: "There were not enough men in the country to run the mills before the strike, so all you need to do to win the strike is, don't work. Enjoy your summer shut-down, it means more work next winter. That is the time for mill work anyhow."

There has been no change in the arbitration or mediation movements, so far as the officials of the association are aware. The hope is still general among these officials, however, that a way will be found to bring about a settlement of the difficulties.

President Shaffer has never yet declared that there was no possibility of concessions on the part of the Amalgamated Association. When asked his opinion on this matter to day he replied that he was unable to answer the question. Friends of the president who have talked to him on this line express the firm belief that if the proper steps were taken the manufacturers would find the association in a conciliatory mood and ready to meet any reasonable proposition consistent with honor. They say the whole of Shaffer's speech is inclined toward peace if he can secure it honorably.

From Monessen to-night came the following:

"There is supressed excitement in the air to night and it is likely that trouble of a serious nature will result inside of twenty-four hours. Notwithstanding all efforts to the contrary, the National tin plate works started up this morning at the regular time. All shifts are working. Superintendent Donner has placed a heavy guard around the mill and if any effort is made to intimidate the workmen there certainly will be bloodshed. The organizers have been able to get a few men away, however, but it is said their places were quickly filled.

NEW YORK, July 22.—President Schwab, of the United States Steel Corporation, refused to-day to make any reply to President Shaffer, of the Amalgamated Association, regarding the strike situation.

SIX BODIES FOUND.

Men Supposed to Have Perished From Exhaustion and Exposure.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NOME, July 10, via Seattle, Wash., July 22.—A tragic story comes from St. Michaels. A party of men en route to Nome recently found the bodies of six men at a point near Cape Romanoff. The bodies were scattered at intervals—five of them about a quarter of a mile apart. They were outstretched upon the tundra and each was found wrapped in blankets. Each had some camp equipment near him but no food.

General Randall ordered out a party of soldiers to bring in the bodies and every effort will be made to identify them. General Randall thinks that they were a party of prospectors, who in an effort to reach St. Michaels had run out of provisions and perished from exhaustion and exposure.

GARMENT WORKERS' STRIKE.

Considerable Disorder—Revolvers Drawn, But No Shots Fired.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, July 22.—It was announced at the strikers' headquarters that 67,000 garment workers were now on a strike in New York, Brooklyn, Brownsville and Newark. The demands of the strikers are that they work no longer than fifty-nine hours a week, receive a thirty per cent. increase in wages, and that the contractors or middlemen be required to give a bond assuring the pay of the workers.

There was considerable disorder to day as a result of the efforts of the strikers to induce workers to quit. Revolvers were drawn at one shop, but no shots were fired. The police made about a dozen arrests.

A severe wind storm wrought much damage at Naples, Texas. Several small buildings were blown down. Henry Bryant was crushed to death and George Lee sustained a broken limb.

Mrs. Kruger, wife of former President Kruger, of the South African Republic, who died Saturday last, of pneumonia, after an illness of three days, was buried there yesterday afternoon.

A New York dispatch says: Harry Williams, a colored bell-boy, was arrested yesterday for stealing diamonds and jewelry worth $2,000 from a woman guest at the Long Beach hotel on Saturday. The woman's name is withheld. She is from Georgia.

The race between the Constitution and the Columbia on Long Island sound yesterday again demonstrated that the Constitution is the faster fair-weather craft. In a light breeze and smooth water, over a 21-mile course, Columbia was defeated four minutes and eighteen seconds elapsed time.

OUR ARMY IN THE PHILIPPINE ISLANDS.

Radical Reforms to be Made—Reduction of Present Force to Between Twenty and Thirty Thousand.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

MANILA, July 22.—The conference between Adjutant General Corbin and General Chaffee, recently held here, probably will result in radical economical and administrative reforms in the army of occupation. It is estimated that the total cost of maintaining the American army in the Philippines can be reduced by sixty per cent. in the course of one year. The principal change will be the reduction of the present force to between twenty and thirty thousand men. The abolishment of the present army districts is contemplated, and three brigades, with permanent headquarters at Manila, Dahupan and Iloilo or Cebu, will be instituted in their stead. The troops will be concentrated at the three points selected, abandoning all minor points. These changes will amount in an enormous saving in the transportation of supplies and the paying of rental for barracks for the soldiers. At present, in most towns, the troops are quartered in churches, convents, and public and private buildings, for the use of which considerable rentals are paid. In the majority of other cases, where the troops do not occupy public buildings, it is believed rentals will have to be paid for the soldiers' quarters, if their occupancy is continued, since these regions are pacified and their inhabitants have sworn allegiance to the United States.

Adjutant General Corbin and General Chaffee have decided upon the construction of barracks at the pumping station (about six miles from Manila and the source of the city's water supply) to accommodate three regiments of infantry, one of cavalry and eight of artillery, as well as a general commissary and quartermaster's storehouse to cost $1,000. The erection of this building, will reduce expenses by $20,000 a month, being the rentals paid for the commissary and quartermaster storehouses in Manila alone. An electric railroad, connecting the docks on the Bovig river and the new storehouse will be constructed. Generals Corbin and Chaffee have also decided upon one single general military hospital to replace the seven military hospitals in Manila and vicinity; one of the latter buildings will be converted into a public hospital.

The reduction of the great fleet of government launches and small government steamers has already begun.

The insular constabulary is now being organized. It will be maintained by the insular government and is expected to be amply able to preserve peace and enforce the law.

The telegraph system throughout the archipelago established by the signal corps, has been taken over by the civil government.

NEGRO LYNCHED BY A MOB.

A Desperado Who Had Mortally Wounded the Chief of Police of Elkins, W. Va., Hanged by Citizens.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

ELKINS, W. VA., July 22.—To night the dead body of William Brooks, colored, swings from the limb of a tree in the City Park here, and Chief of Police Robert Lilly lies dying in a Cumberland, Md., hospital from the effects of a bullet wound inflicted by the colored man. This afternoon word was brought to the police station that William Brooks, a well known colored man, was creating trouble in the lower end of town, and asking for the aid of an officer to subdue him. Chief of Police Robert Lilly said he would go himself and bring him in. When Brooks saw the officer coming he started to run for the house and by the time Lilly came up to the house, (which had a good sized crowd surrounding it) and ordered the man to come out, Brooks came to the window of a front room, armed with a gun. Officer Lilly ordered him to surrender and come peacefully to the lockup. Brooks said he would not go peaceably or any other way. Lilly ran into the house for the black man. The crowd outside made no offer to help, and the officer faced the desperate negro alone. Sounds of a fierce struggle could be heard and the crowd that had gathered ran to the house to help. When the room was gained both men were found on the floor in mortal combat. The negro was shouting that he would never be taken alive and the officer, silent and grim, held him with a death grip. Suddenly the negro worked his right arm free from the grasp of the officer and catching up a revolver that had fallen to the floor in the struggle fired point-blank at the officer. Lilly fell to the floor shot through the bowels. When the officer released the negro he broke from the room and ran, followed by a big crowd. For several blocks he kept ahead of the crowd. Finally after a chase of half a mile, Brooks was overtaken and captured. He fought desparately, but could not get away. Other officers came to the rescue and with small ceremony, Brooks was handed over to the sheriff to be taken to the county jail. Just as the sheriff reached the prison doors and ordered the prisoner to walk into the jail, a mob of men, at least four hundred strong, surrounded the office and demanded the prisoner. The sheriff and guards refused and made desperate resistance but to avail. Brooks was seized, rushed through the streets, half walking and half falling, along towards the City Park. When the park was reached, the men who were leading Brooks told him to walk under a big tree in the center of the park and prepare to die. The negro could not speak and seemed almost insensible to what was going on. The rope was drawn up, and in a few minutes the body of William Brooks swung from the tree lifeless. Then the mob dispersed.

Officer Lilly's wounds are fatal. He is unable to talk and can give but a small explanation of the trouble that led to the shooting. The body of Brooks up to a late hour this evening, still hung in the park.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, July 22.—The Journal of Commerce to-morrow will say:

It is reported that negotiations are on foot looking to a consolidation of large mixed paint concerns. One report has it that the company will engage in all branches of the paint business, including pigments, oils, turpentine, varnishes, chemicals, brushes and glass, and that a $100,000,000 company will be organized. It is known that several members of the local trade have been approached, but no definite progress is reported.

NO PROSPECT OF DECIDED RELIEF.

All Previous Heat Records in the West Were Smashed Yesterday.

WARM WEATHER GENERAL.

Dry Thunder Storms Unaccompanied by Rain—The Mercury Over 100 Degrees in Many Places—Not So High in the East.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, July 22.—One hundred degrees temperatures were common throughout the great corn belt to-day, according to the reports to the Weather Bureau here. In various places in Illinois, Iowa and other States, all previous heat records were smashed. There appears to be no prospect of decided relief from these exhausting conditions for the next two days at least, except such as may come from the always present possibility of scattered thunder storms which are predicted for some portions of the superheated area. To-day dry thunder storms, unaccompanied by rain, prevailed in several sections of the West, hundreds of miles apart. This temporarily cooled the atmosphere, but brought no relief to the famishing crops. Absolutely no rain fell in the corn belt according to the official reports received. In eastern Iowa it was a trifle cooler to-day while in the central portion of the State it was warmer. There is a little belt of high pressure over the great lakes and another over the South Atlantic coast, but it offers no prospect of relief in the West so long as the continued low pressure remains in the Northwest. The warm weather again was general throughout the entire country except on the pacific coast.

Effects in St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, July 22.—The terrible heat which broke all records in the State of Missouri Sunday was broken to-day. According to dispatches received to-night, higher temperatures were recorded in every section of the State to-day than were ever known in Missouri before. A thermometer reading 100 was considered comparatively low, so fierce was the heat in the State. Prostrations were reported from many towns and villages in the State.

In St. Louis hundreds of men and women spent the early hours of the morning in the parks, being unable to find rest in their homes. Six deaths have resulted from the heat in the past twenty four hours in St. Louis and 25 prostrations have been recorded.

CHICAGO, July 22.—Ten dead, one man driven insane and five prostrations showed the result of yesterday's sweltering heat. The temperature was pleasant, being below 80, and the deaths and prostrations were, therefore, the work of yesterday. Pleasant weather is predicted for to morrow.

In the East the temperatures while high did not approach anywhere the extremes prevailing in the West, and a recurrence of the hot wave of two weeks ago is believed to be unlikely in the Atlantic coast region. Thunder showers have continued from the Atlantic coast westward into Arizona and a continuation of them is predicted for the South and Southwest. In Des Moines, Ia., the temperature officially reported to day was 108; in Springfield, Ill., 108; in Cincinnati 106, and in Louisville 106, in each case breaking all past records. In Indianapolis it was 106, or five degrees higher than ever before reported. In St. Louis it was 106, Omaha 104, Bismarck N. D., 104 and Concordia, Kas., 102. In the East, Boston reported a temperature of 94 degrees, New York 90, Philadelphia 88 and Washington 93.

Intense Suffering.

KANSAS CITY, MO., July 22.—To-day was a record breaker. Yesterday Kansas City experienced the hottest weather ever known here, the government thermometer registering 104 and remaining above the hundred mark for seven consecutive hours. Two dozen prostrations, nine of which resulted fatally, were reported. The bureau thermometer, at the highest point in the city, showed 106 degrees to day, while thermometers on the streets reached as high as 128. Hardly a breath of air stirred. The suffering was intense, especially among persons compelled to work out doors and among the poor districts in the bottoms. Seven deaths from prostrations were reported during the day in Kansas City, Mo., and Kansas City, Kas., and over thirty people overcome by the heat were treated. This makes the total dead for the two days sixteen. Most of the victims were elderly people.

To-day is the thirty second in succession on which the temperature has averaged above 90 degrees and the fifteenth in that time that the thermometer has gone above 100.

At Lawrence Kansas, the State University reported the heat record for Kansas again broken, with the mercury at 106.6 degrees, the highest in thirty-four years.

Farmers are still rushing their live stock to market because of the scarcity of water. To-day the local receipts of cattle were the heaviest on record, amounting to 25,500 head. There also was a big advance in the price of grain, attributable to the heat. Single car lots of corn sold as high as 63 cents a bushel, to go back to the country. There were liberal receipts.

Heavy showers fell this afternoon in Southwest Missouri, in the vicinity of the Joshlin zinc mining district and in Southeastern Kansas around Fort Scott. There is no prospect for a heavy rainfall, the only thing that will cause a permanent break in the unprecedented drought.

TOPEKA, KAN., July 22.—Three deaths and ten prostrations form the record of to day's heat in Topeka. The thermometer registered 106 maximum. The humidity in the air to-day was the most oppressive of the year. The Kansas river is very low, but the supply of water in the city mains is yet plentiful.

ELKS' CONVENTION.

All Absorbing Topic is Election of the Grand Exalted Ruler.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

MILWAUKEE, WIS., July 22.—Trains and steamer lines brought about 15,000 Elks to the city to-day and a large number will arrive to-morrow, the opening day of the convention. The all absorbing topic of interest centers in the election of the next Grand Exalted Ruler. Supporters of the active candidates, Charles E. Pickett of Iowa, and Judge John Cathaway of Minneapolis, make large claims to-night, each faction declaring their man will be elected.

During my absence Mr. Dosher will be glad to entertain any seeker after stylish, honest made, long lasting Furniture.
